GAGE AND ST. CLAIR TIE UP FOR LONG GO

WILLIE DECIDES
TO COME BACKConfident He Is Better Than Either Gage or Miller.

WILL BE SOME BOUT

Gage Says He'll Make the Colored Lad Travel
Mighty Fast.

(By Dex.)

Promoter Billy Glasmann announces the engagement of Frankie Gage and Willie St. Clair, the affair to take place Wednesday, May 15, at 8:30 p. m. An invitation is extended to the general public, as both participants are well known hereabouts. Any useful presents will be appreciated, such as Sloan's Liniment, crutches, lung-motors, sponges, bandages, etc. Razors and flowers are barred, as they are usually superseded by a long, quiet procession, and a nice little on-room home under the old chestnut tree.

We cannot see how much peaceful joy ever-after will come from this match, as both have fiery dispositions and are entirely too gay with their mitts. We are of the opinion that both will have a slashing, biff bang, fast, furious time and that after a short career, the referee will maul over the wreckage and decide who shall draw the long end of the salary. However, we should worry about how the fracas ends. They're like all the rest of us—they want a tie up, so let 'em go to it.

We knew that Willie would be right here on the scene if Gage did not succeed in putting Joey Miller away for the count. St. Clair has always entertained the idea that he was better than either man, but wisely decided to allow Gage to test Miller's ability, so that no matter who won he would be left up on the lesser light. Willie's little bean, long reach, lightning footwork and crushing swat in his good right hand have always proved a hard combination to go up against. Taking into consideration the fast, classy work of Frankie Gage against Miller, this argument between Willie and Frankie at the Armory on the 15th should prove a ripe, juicy morsel of entertainment for a big bunch of the faithful.

It seems that Gage in his last battle overestimated his lungpower in this high altitude and led on from the start at such a furious rate that his bellows were unable to deliver a sufficient supply of ozone, and his defeat was due more from this cause than from any particular punch delivered by Miller.

OAKS VICTORS
OVER SENATORSHarry Krause Too Much for Solons and Oakland Wins
Opening Game 9 to 4.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 7.—The Oakland club made its first appearance here today and took the Senators into camp, 9 to 4. Harry Krause was too much for the Solons, and Jack Bromley was not enough for the Oaks. Fifteen hits were pounded from Bromley's offerings. Krause himself got four hits, including a home run, in as many times at bat. Middleton also put himself in the home-run class.

The home boys came nearest to making things interesting in the sixth inning, when a walk to Wolter, hits by Willie and Griggs and an error by Wares put in three tallies. Leifer twisted his ankle in the first inning sliding into third and had to be taken from the game.

LARGE SERVICE FLAG
FITTINGLY UNVEILED

BRIGHAM CITY, May 7.—The service flag presented to the bishopric of the Second ward by the Mutual Improvement association of that ward was fittingly unveiled Sunday evening. The unveiling was done by little Miss Nina Figgins and Eunice Roskelley. The flag contains forty stars, representing forty young men who have joined the colors from that ward. Bishop Thomas H. Blackburn accepted the flag for the people of the ward in a neat address. A patriotic address was delivered by J. Francis Merrell. The musical numbers of the services included two selections by the Echo Male quartette, "Columbia's Natal Day," and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

An engrossed roll of honor is also owned by the Second ward which contains valuable data concerning the forty young men of the ward who are in the service.

The worst thing for Germany about any peace offers is that the war lords have too thoroughly convinced the world that their promises are only scraps of paper issued to get what they want when they can't get it the Prussian way.

It's a safe bet Bismark turned over in his tomb at least twice when somebody explained that Ludendorff is considered a greater statesman than the Iron Chancellor.

NOT IVAN'S FAULT
THAT ROBINS LOSE

Ivan Olson. With the Brooklyn Robins losing game after game, the great playing of Ivan Olson at shortstop goes practically unnoticed. Ivan in the games to date has made wonderful stops of hard hit balls to his territory, thereby killing not a few base hits. At bat he is the most dependable man Robbie has.

ANGELS WIN IN
FIRST GAME 4-3Curley Brown's Curves Out-class Dell's Fast Ones and Tigers Lose.

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—Vernon was pulled down another game when the Angels took the first battle of the series here today, 4 to 3, at the end of eleven hard-fought innings. It was Curley Brown's curves against Wheeler Dell's fast ones, which were not so fast today but that the Angels got twelve safeties. Off Dell's delivery, Brown allowed but six hits, but three of them came in the sixth, when Vernon tied the score at 3 all.

With one out, Dell walked, Daley singled, Mitchell doubled, scoring Dell and Daley, and Mitchell scored on Chadbourne's double.

In the five succeeding innings the Tigers could find Brown safely but once while Dell was being touched up frequently but managed to hold the Angels safe until the eleventh, when two hits and a passed batsman allowed the Angels to put over the deciding score.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 7.—The San Francisco Seals, league champions last year, ran true to form today. After taking the lead in the early innings they allowed Salt Lake to grab the game away in the eighth and ninth.

At first it was a very stiff fight between Lefty Leverenz and Spider Baum, the respective mainstays of the two teams. The Seals managed to put over a single run in the third and then for four innings both pitchers twirled stellar ball.

In the eighth Baum snapped, and the Bees pushed two men across the plate. In the last inning they tallied once more for good measure.

Be it said that the Bees deserved the game, for Leverenz pitched a three-hit game, got a two-bagger, and scored one of the visitors runs.

PIRATES ONCE MORE SQUEEZE IN WINNERS
PITTSBURG, May 7.—Pittsburgh again won from Chicago today, 2 to 1. Miller, pitching for the home team, was steady and kept the visitors' hits scattered, the only Chicago run being due to an error by Caton. The latter, while charged with three misplays, played a brilliant game.

The fielding of Second Baseman Kilduff of Chicago was the best seen at Forbes field in several seasons. After the first inning the Pirates could do little with the pitching of Weaver.
